

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

KINANN, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

No. C 10-2608 PJH

v.

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

CENTEX HOME EQUITY COMPANY,
et al.,

Defendants.

On March 25, 2011, this court granted defendant Centex's motion to dismiss plaintiffs' complaint. The vast majority of plaintiffs' claims were dismissed with prejudice, although plaintiffs were given leave to amend certain limited claims. Plaintiffs – who failed to file an opposition to the motion to dismiss or appear at the hearing on the motion – were advised via subsequent order on April 11, 2011 to file an amended complaint no later than April 15, 2011. More than two weeks since the April 15 deadline have now passed, and plaintiffs have failed to file an amended complaint.

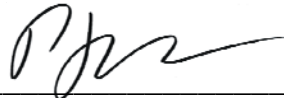

The court has considered the five factors set forth in Malone v. United States Postal Service, 833 F.2d 128, 130 (9th Cir. 1987), and has determined that notwithstanding the public policy favoring the disposition of actions on their merits, the court's need to manage its docket and the public interest in the expeditious resolution of the instant litigation require dismissal of this action. In view of plaintiffs' lack of response to this court's prior order, the court finds there is no appropriate less drastic sanction.

Accordingly, this action is DISMISSED with prejudice as to defendant Centex pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. Pro. 41(b) for plaintiffs' failure to prosecute. Having previously

1 entered judgment as to defendant Fidelity, and dismissed plaintiffs' complaint without
2 prejudice as to remaining defendant All Fund for lack of service, the court hereby
3 DISMISSES the action in its entirety. The dismissal as to All Fund, however, remains
4 without prejudice.
